The Grüner Veltliner Mollands is a local wine that grows on various vineyards in Mollands with loamy soil on a stony, loess-bearing subsoil at approx. 320m - 350m above sea level. The cool nights during the hot summer days give the Veltliner its fruity note. Our Grüner Veltliner Mollands is always rather light in alcohol, yet it impresses with a full-bodied, fruity and spicy taste on the palate. It goes perfectly with a hearty snack or with typical Austrian home cooking (e.g. roast pork, schnitzel, meat dumplings)
