The Grüner Veltliner Mollands is a local wine, grows on various vineyards with loamy soil on stony, loessy soil at about 340m above sea level. The cool nights during the hot summer days give the Veltliner its fruity note. Our Grüner Veltliner Mollands 18 shows a bright, clear straw yellow in the glass. It smells very diverse from exotic fruits like mango to spicy tobacco notes. He has a medium-bodied body, is refreshingly sparkling with an astringent finish. It goes well with hearty snacks or typical Austrian home cooking (eg roast pork, schnitzel, meat dumplings
