The Grüner Veltliner Mollands is a local wine, grows on various vineyards with loamy soil on a stony, loess-bearing subsoil at about 340m above sea level. The cool nights during the hot summer days give the Veltliner its fruity note. This Green Veltliner is a real Mollandser. Very diverse in fragrance, fruity and spicy on the palate, a wine with echoes and edges. Hand picked, spontaneously fermented, simply biodynamic. It goes well with hearty snacks or typical Austrian home cooking (e.g. roast pork, schnitzel, meat dumplings)
