The mixed set is not a cuvée: grape varieties typical of the region grow together in one vineyard and are also processed together. In the past, at times when varietal expansion was not a matter of course, this was standard in viticulture. In our mixed set you will find typical varieties from the region: Frühroter Veltliner, Rivaner, Weißburgunder, Grüner Veltliner, Riesling, Sauvignon blanc, among others from approx. 50 year old vines. The vineyard is located on the northern border of the Kamptal at almost 400m above sea level and is characterized by the cool climate of the Waldviertel. The cool nights and the rough wind ensure that our mixed set is always very fruity. The majority of the early red Veltliner and Rivaner are responsible for the mild acidity that characterizes this wine. Serving tip: Due to the mild acidity, the mixed set goes well with spicy dishes such as Asian cuisine and marinated vegetables.
